Because of the solar eclipse, we will not have class on Monday, August 21. Assuming the world is still in existence, our first class will be on Wednesday, August 23. For our first class, do the following:

1. Go to the copyshop at Ellis Library and purchase Readings for Elderlaw, which is the sole text for the course.
2. Open the text Readings on Elderlaw and read the first chapter which is called Legal Problems of an Aging Population. The reading isn’t difficult. There are lots of pictures.
3. Sign up for the TWEN page for the course. This is where the slides for the course will be posted.
4. Show up for class.

The English Professor