Welcome to Trademark Law! In advance of our first class, there are three important announcements:

1. We will not meet on Monday, August 21, 2017. Enjoy the solar eclipse! Our first class will be on Wednesday, August 23, 11:30 a.m., in Room 4.

2. The only reading assignment for the first class is the Course Information and Guidelines (the course rules and regulations), which is attached to an email that was sent to students on August 8, 2017. If you signed up for the course after that date, or did not receive the email, please contact me promptly at – LeeIH@missouri.edu. You will also receive a hard copy of the CIG, as well as the Syllabus, in class.

3. There is also a non-reading assignment. From now until we meet on the first day of class, please try to avoid trademarks or thinking about them.
