Instructor

I am the W.F. Fratcher Professor of Law at the University of Missouri at Columbia, where I have taught Property, Trusts and Estates, Estate Planning, Federal Income Tax, Elder Law, and Will and Trust Drafting. Before becoming a law teacher, I was an associate in the estate planning and probate department at the Chicago law firm of McDermott, Will and Emery, and an estate planning and tax associate and later partner at the Chicago law firm of D’Ancona and Pflaum.

I spend much of my time as a Uniform Law Commissioner for the State of Missouri. I was the Reporter (principal drafter) of the Uniform Trust Code, the Uniform Health-Care Decisions Act, and the Uniform Adult Guardianship and Protective Proceedings Jurisdiction Act, and Chaired the Committee that drafted the Uniform Guardianship, Conservatorship and Other Protective Arrangements Act. I also spend much of my time working with other professional organizations. I am currently the Chair-Elect of the ABA Section of Real Property Trust and Estate Law and Co-Chair of the Guardianship Statutory Task Force of the Missouri Developmental Disabilities Council. I am also the immediate past Chair of the ABA Commission on Law and Aging, and the immediate past Chair of the Probate and Trust Committee of the Missouri Bar.

Office Hours

I maintain an open door policy. The best time for questions is immediately after class.

Audio/Video Recording

Recording of any part of the class session, in any action or video format, is not permitted without my permission.

Attendance Policy

According to American Bar Association accreditation guidelines, students must attend 80% of all classes. Any student who misses more than 5 regularly scheduled classes during the semester may be withdrawn from the course. Attendance will be taken beginning with the second week of class.
Mandatory Notices

Academic Dishonesty

Academic dishonesty can result in a lowered grade or failure of the course, dismissal from the school, and even disqualification for the bar exam. Academic dishonesty includes but is not limited to cheating, plagiarism, unauthorized possession of exams, and unauthorized changing of grades.

ADA Statement

If you have special needs eligible for assistance under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and desire such assistance, please contact the Office of Disability Services, Memorial Union S5, 882-4696, or the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs immediately. Reasonable efforts will be made to accommodate your special needs.

Diversity of Viewpoints

The School of Law community welcomes diversity and respects student rights. Students who have questions concerning the quality of instruction in this class may address concerns to either the Dean or Director of the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities. All students will have the opportunity to submit an anonymous evaluation of the instructor at the end of this course.
