You can REVIEW the requirements at: <http://www.law.missouri.edu/academics/requirements.html>. Please keep in mind that there are several required courses following your first year.

NOTE: For students in the Class of 2019, you have a six (6) credit experiential learning requirement that must be satisfied to graduate.

B. BAR EXAM PREPARATION

Missouri Bar Examination information, including subjects tested, can be found at: <https://www.mble.org/appinfo.action?id=1>

Links to the Bar authorities in other states can be found on the National Conference site: <http://www.ncbex.org/>

C. STUDENTS ON ACADEMIC PROBATION

Students on academic probation are subject to certain conditions which can be found at: <http://catalog.missouri.edu/academicpolicies/dismissalandprobation/>

II. COURSE INFORMATION

Use the information below to help prepare your course preferences. You may also review the list of courses, the “grid” of scheduled courses, and the exam schedules at: <http://law.missouri.edu/registrar/schedules/>.

The complete listing of courses, not all of which are offered next year or every year, can be found at: <http://law.missouri.edu/academics/curriculum.html>

A. UPPER-LEVEL REQUIREMENTS

- 1. Constitutional Law and Evidence: You must take these courses during your second (2L) year. In the 2017-18 year, these courses will be offered in both semesters.
- 2. Professional Responsibility and Criminal Procedure: You may take these courses either during your second (2L) year or during your third (3L) year. These courses will be offered both semesters.

3. Writing Requirement: You must complete an upper-level intensive writing requirement. You can satisfy this requirement by: (i) taking a course that has a designation of “W”; (ii) serving on a journal; or (iii) taking an Independent Research project with a faculty member.
4. Experiential Learning: Students who will be graduating in the Class of 2019 and thereafter will be required to earn six (6) credits in experiential learning. Courses that can be used to satisfy the requirement are: (a) Clinics; (b) Practicums; (c) Externships; and (d) Simulation Courses. Courses that satisfy this requirement will have an “E” for Experiential on the class schedule. You have already satisfied two (2) credits with Lawyering.

NOTE: You are not permitted to have an experiential (“E”) course satisfy your Writing (“W”) Requirement.

B. COURSE PREREQUISITES AND CO-REQUISITES

A number of courses have prerequisites that you must take in advance of registering for a course. Please refer to the Prerequisites, Co-requisites, and Other Requirements and Suggestions table.

Prerequisites: For courses that have prerequisites, the list of prerequisites can be found on the web page listing for each course. Please review them carefully as you will not be able to register for certain courses if you have not satisfied the prerequisite(s).

Co-requisites: For courses that have co-requisites, you are permitted to take courses concurrently with required courses.

III. REGISTRATION INFORMATION

Once registration is open for your group, you may register at any time thereafter.

B. COURSE ENROLLMENT CAPS AND ENROLLING IN CLOSED COURSES

When you go to MyZou, you will see the enrollment cap limits for each course. There are NO wait lists. As students drop courses, the online registration will indicate that there are spaces available in the course.

You can create a “wish list,” but your “wish list” will not automatically enroll you if an opening is created. YOU MUST CHECK ON COURSES REGULARLY TO DETERMINE IF THERE IS AN OPENING.

C. COURSES REQUIRING STUDENT SPECIFIC PERMISSION

Enrollment in some courses requires specific permission. To enroll, students will need to speak with Denise Boessen in Room 203. Courses requiring specific permission will be identified in MyZou accordingly.

D. SPECIAL ISSUES CONCERNING EXISTING COURSES

Trial Practice

If you are enrolled in Trial Practice as of 5:00 p.m. on the day prior to the First Day of class for a semester, you will NOT be permitted to withdraw after that date (except for “good cause” arising later in the semester, to be solely decided by the faculty member teaching the course). In other words, if you are enrolled in one of these courses as of the above time, you will receive a grade for the course.

As of now, Trial Practice will not be offered during the Spring Intersession. Please plan your schedules accordingly.

E. CERTIFICATE AND CONCENTRATIONS

Dispute Resolution (Certificate)

Clients and society today need and expect much more than traditional advocacy from their lawyers. Modern lawyers need to be able to address legal problems in ways that accommodate a variety of needs, goals and values, in addition to vindicating legal rights. As a result, today’s lawyer must have the knowledge, skills and perspectives not only to advocate in the courtroom, but to participate in such processes as client counseling, negotiation, mediation, arbitration and creative problem-solving.

To earn the DR Certificate, you must file a Notice of Intent Form. Please be sure that you have satisfied the required courses for your graduating year. All information can be found online here: <http://law.missouri.edu/jd/certificates/dispute-resolution/>.

Criminal Justice (Concentration)

The Criminal Justice Concentration is designed for two groups of students: those who are considering beginning their legal careers as prosecutors or criminal defense counsel and those who may not have an express interest in criminal practice, but who are nonetheless seeking a course of study structured to provide training in the range of skills necessary to the practice of law in most substantive areas – particularly including legal analysis, factual investigation, counseling, negotiation and the persuasive arts employed in written and oral advocacy.

To satisfy the requirements you must file a Notice of Intent Form, and complete the courses identified on the checklist.

Tax Law (Concentration)

The Tax Law concentration is designed to provide each student in the concentration basic education in both general skills and subject-matter specific knowledge and provide each student with an opportunity to bring the entire skill set to bear in a capstone experience designed to teach integrated legal problem-solving. Completion of a concentration should improve the overall preparedness of graduates by conferring entry-level competence to begin practicing law with appropriate supervision in the concentration's subject matter area or practice setting.

In the concentration, there are two tracks that you can pursue: (1) Estate Planning and (2) Transactional Tax Planning. To satisfy the requirements you must file a Notice of Intent Form, and complete the courses identified on the requisite checklist.

F. EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING AND SKILLS OPPORTUNITIES

Students have several opportunities to gain valuable practical experience through either live-client clinical opportunities, practicums, externships, and simulation courses.

Students who will be graduating in the Class of 2019 have to satisfy a six (6) credit experiential learning requirement. The following are courses that provide such an opportunity and may satisfy the requirement. Please review the course list to identify the experiential courses.

Clinics:

The Law School offers several opportunities for students to work with clients under expert supervision:

Criminal Clinic - Prof. Kandice Johnson

Family Violence Clinic - Prof. Mary Beck

Innocence Project Clinic – Prof. Uphoff / Prof. Runnels (if funding is approved)

Mediation Clinic - Prof. Jim Levin

Entrepreneurship Legal Clinic - Prof. James Niemann

Veterans Law Clinic - Prof. Angela Drake

Each of these clinical experiences can be taken only one time. Information is available at: <http://law.missouri.edu/academics/clinical.html>

Practicums

Legislative Practicum - Prof. Dan Hall

Landlord/Tenant Practicum - Prof. Michael Carney

Externships

Summer 2017 – South Africa (Prof. Uphoff)

Summer 2017, Fall 2017, and Spring 2018 – United States (Dean Key)

The externship program is available each semester. Only students who have completed their first year of law school and are in good academic standing can register for the Externship course.

Externs must attend two (2) class meetings at the beginning of the course and five (5) class meetings at the end of the course. During the fall and spring semesters those class meetings will be arranged by the instructor. For summer sessions, class meetings will be scheduled at the end of the spring semester and the beginning of the fall semester.

For three (3) credits, externs will work for a total of 150 hours at the placement sites of their choice where they will be supervised by attorneys and judges who have agreed to serve as mentors. For two (2) credits, externs will work a total of 100 hours at their placement sites.

Students will be permitted to register for the Externship during two or three semesters or summer sessions. Students can earn no more than three (3) externship credits during any one semester or summer session. Students cannot take more than 6 hours of Externship credits.

In the fall semester, one of the Externship sections will be focused exclusively on externs with placements as judicial clerks. As with the regular Externship Program, the Judicial Externship offers students an opportunity to develop some of the skills necessary to bridge the gap between law school and law practice.

Judicial Externship - Fall 2017 (Prof. Dessem)

Students undertaking the Judicial Externship will secure placements with a state or federal judge. The work of Judicial Externs will consist primarily of research and writing for the judge and his or her judicial law clerks.

Externs should have the opportunity to attend hearings, draft opinions, and perform administrative and other duties within the judge's chambers. The arranged class meetings at the Law School will focus on the special duties and responsibilities of both judges and their clerks and the unique roles that both of them play within our legal system. Through the Judicial Externship, students prepare for "effective and responsible participation in the legal profession"

(ABA Std. 301) by applying the core concepts learned in law school courses to the challenges presented in the actual practice of law. Courts schedule few proceedings on Fridays. Students interested in the Judicial Externship Seminar should schedule a day other than Friday that is relatively open to spend time at the courthouse.

G. CHANGES TO THE COURSE SCHEDULES

Please be aware that circumstances may arise which might require the Law School to make changes to the course schedules. Some courses might have to be cancelled due to a lack of enrollment or unavailability of the professor. Some new courses might be added and there might be some changes in the professors assigned to any particular course. We will try to minimize the disruptions that those changes might have on your schedule and will work with you to adjust your schedules in case late scheduling changes have to be made.

H. NON-LAW SCHOOL COURSES

Law students in good academic standing are permitted initially to take up to three (3) hours of study outside the law (<http://catalog.missouri.edu/academicpolicies/creditfornonlawcourses/>). For a course to qualify, it must be related to your field of legal study and is at the graduate level or above (i.e. courses numbered 7000-9999). A written request and a course syllabus must be provided to the Associate Dean for approval for you to obtain approval to take a non-law school course. After taking these initial three (3) hours of non-law school courses, students can petition the Associate Dean to take up to an additional three (3) hours of coursework outside the law school. A petition will be granted upon a showing that the coursework is relevant and valuable to the student's academic and professional goals.

I. PASS/FAIL COURSES (S/U)

Students may not choose to take a class pass/fail. The faculty decides whether a course is to be conducted on a graded basis (65-100) or on a satisfactory/unsatisfactory basis. Most courses are graded. If you have a question about whether the course is graded, you should ask the instructor. There is no limit on the number of S/U hours that a student may have.

IV. LONDON LAW CONSORTIUM

We will provide information as it becomes available. The London Law Program typically takes place over the Spring Intersession.

In the past the program will offer a course on the British Legal System, designed as a hybrid of the two core courses we have offered in previous years (the English Legal System class and the British Legal Methods seminar), with a strong comparative focus. Students may take the course for two credits, and will be graded based on class participation and a series of short papers, with a third unit of credit available for students who complete a more substantial seminar paper after we return from London. We will continue many of the experiences that have been a highlight for students in past programs, including the opportunity to shadow a barrister, visit the Old Bailey, and attend dining night at the Inner Temple hall.

V. FACULTY

A. FULL-TIME FACULTY

You can find biographical information on most members of the faculty at: <http://law.missouri.edu/faculty/directory/>.
