

GOVERNMENT AND ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

Many attorneys work in policymaking roles within legislative and administrative branches of government. Government and administrative law pervade the law school curriculum. Mizzou Law offers a set of core courses that focus more directly on both the legal and practical side of this area. Students considering this pathway may also want to consider courses listed under the Constitutional Law pathway.

Foundational Courses

- Constitutional Law (2L required course)
- Administrative Law
- Election Law
- Law and Public Policy
- Legislation
- Local Government Law
- Tax Policy

Recommended Courses, Practicum

- American Legal History
- Constitutional and Civil Rights Litigation
- Dispute Resolution in the Digital Age
- Environmental Law
- Freedom of Speech and Association
- Gender, Race, Sexuality and the Law
- Jurisprudence
- Law and Economics
- Regulation of Drugs and Medical Devices

- Legislative Practicum

Contact List: Faculty Who Teach or Have Expertise in the Field

Bennett, Drake, Filbert, Halabi, Henson, Lambert, Lietzan, Reuben, Schmitz

*Not all of the above courses may be offered every academic year. Please refer to the registrar's website to see how frequently courses of interest have been offered in recent years.