

Remedies
Law 5870
Spring 2021

Required Texts: DOUGLAS LAYCOCK & RICHARD L. HASEN, MODERN AMERICAN REMEDIES (5th ed. 2019)
(hereinafter "L&H")

Course Website:

A course website titled "2021SP LAW 5870 Wells(01) Remedies" has been created for this course using the Canvas learning management system. It will be available, starting at or about one week before the first class, at: <https://courses.missouri.edu>. Access is by your university pawprint. I will post all course materials, including slides, assignments, the course syllabus, etc. on this course website.

Reading for 1/19 & 1/21:

For the first week of class, read L&H, pp. 1-18. There will be slides posted on the Canvas site under Module 1 that you should read as well.

On Thursday 1/21 will discuss the basics of course content and expectations and do an in-class exercise.

As discussed more fully in the syllabus, this class meets both asynchronously and via Zoom. Although it is scheduled for Tuesdays and Thursdays at 10:30, we typically will not meet as a group on Tuesdays. Instead, I will post the readings and slides for the entire week before Tuesday. Use the Tuesday class (if you want) to read the materials and digest them. There will be a discussion board available each week for you to post any questions or thoughts you have about the readings.

- During the first week of class, we will not have a discussion board on Tuesday. We will meet on Thursday.
- Due to the Covid situation, we will have our first class meetings over Zoom rather than face-to-face. A zoom link will be sent via email and posted on the Canvas site.
