Assignment for the First Day

Read the syllabus (posted on Canvas).

Consider printing and binding the statutory supplements and letter update (all on Canvas) so that you have them with you in class every day.

Read pages 3-9 and 16-30 in the casebook.

Send me an email with responses to the following questions:

- Full name, what you want me to call you, and any pronunciation or other guidance you think might be appropriate or necessary.
- Any background in the creative industries (such as music, art, or photography), in business (such as creating and selling products or creating a company), or in a hard science? Any inventions? Any other professional or personal background relevant to patents, trademarks, or copyright?
- Whether you have taken or are currently taking any of the other IP classes that we offer (patent law, trademark law, or copyright law).
- Whether you have career plans (or aspirations) that relate to intellectual property, and if so the nature of those plans.
