HONORS ADMISSION AT THE SCHOOL OF LAW

The University of Missouri School of Law, in cooperation with undergraduate programs at the University of Missouri, Drury University, Truman State University, Westminster College and Lincoln University, offers an honors admission program. This program was established by Judge Ross T. Roberts, an outstanding graduate of the University of Missouri School of Law and jurist who served with distinction on the United States Federal Court for the Western District of Missouri.

As a Roberts Scholar, a student who meets the following criteria will be guaranteed admission to the University of Missouri School of Law in the fall semester immediately following graduation from college.

Note: The following criteria establish academic admissibility only. The School of Law Admissions Committee reserves the right to refuse admission based on criminal matters, academic dishonesty or other matters that would justify denial of an applicant.

CRITERIA

For students who have graduated from high school and have started their first year of undergraduate study:

- » Graduate from high school with an ACT composite score of 32 or higher or an SAT composite score of 1410 (math and verbal) on the Old SAT, or 1450 on the New SAT; AND
- » Graduate from one of the above-named undergraduate schools with a cumulative grade point average of 3.5 or higher as calculated by Credential Assembly Service (CAS)*; AND
- » Score at the 75th percentile or higher on the Law School Admission Test (LSAT) (the actual score may vary from test to test — the 75th percentile is approximately 161); AND
- » Apply and gain acceptance to the Roberts Scholar Program BEFORE taking the LSAT; AND
- » Enter law school in the fall semester immediately upon graduation from college; AND
- » Have a complete law school application by the Roberts Scholar application deadline. (The actual deadline date will vary depending on the year applying to law school, but is typically in January. Please see the law school application for the exact deadline. A complete application file requires receipt of ALL items on the application checklist by the Mizzou Law Admissions Office. This includes all supporting documents and the CAS report.)

Roberts Scholars will be required to complete all admission requirements such as timely application, processing through CAS, submitting the necessary deposit, etc.

Students who do not meet the required levels of performance for the Roberts Scholar Program may still apply for regular admission to Mizzou Law.

For more information on CAS or the LSAT, please visit lsac.org.*

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

Every student admitted as a Roberts Scholar will receive a merit scholarship. The amount of that scholarship will vary depending upon the overall strength of the student's application.

NON-MU UNDERGRADUATES

Applicants who did not attend MU as undergraduates must provide an official copy of the ACT/SAT score for verification. This can be obtained from the applicant's high school or undergraduate institution.
