Conflict and Conflict Management, Spring 2022
First Day Assignment

Please choose any meaningful personal dispute in which you are or have been involved (other than as a lawyer). Write a short description of the conflict (two or three pages at most) and turn it in before the beginning of class on January 18. Be sure to provide the basic facts, why it was important to you, whether anything made it better or worse, and if applicable, the way in which it was resolved. Be prepared to make a three-minute presentation about it to the class. Also, please read the assigned readings if you have already purchased the book.
